DE VALERA STILL THE PHANTOM REBEL

More Exciting Than the Movie

Dr. and Mrs. Edwin Dudley returned from the movies and found their home at Silgo, Md., as it is shown here. A tornado had torn it from its foundation and turned it partly around. The nurse was dressing the baby when that happened but both escaped uninjured.

Population Of U. S. 110,663,502

WASHINGTON, April 11.—(By the Associated Press)—The population of the United States will be 110,663,502 on July 1st, 1933, according to an estimate today by census bureau statisticians. The country's population is increasing at the rate of 1,115,169 annually. This would give a total of 119,661,710 by the time the next census is taken in 1930. The 1920 census showed a population of 105,710,820.

Tired Of So Much Trouble At Home—Kills Family

SEATTLE, WASH., April 11.—(By the Associated Press)—H. Eber, a second hand dealer, shot to death his wife and three young daughters, one an infant, because he was "tired of so much trouble at home," he said when he walked into a police station here early today. Eber was locked up while policemen hurried to his home, six blocks away and verified his report that he had shot his wife four times and each of their children two or three times. The bodies were scattered about a bedroom. Eber said that he used so many bullets because his victims did not die quickly enough.

Prisoners Escape From Insane Hospital

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., April 11.—(By the Associated Press)—In a running gun fight, three of the four men who escaped from Matteawan state hospital early today, were captured near Kent, Conn., early this afternoon. The fourth got away. Two of the men were shot by the posse, according to reports reaching here. The capture was made by a posse headed by Deputy Sheriff George Dunbar and state troopers. The posse is reported closing in on the fourth fugitive.

MATTEWAN, N. Y., April 11.—(By the Associated Press)—Four desperate and insane criminals made spectacular escape from the Matteawan state hospital early today. In their break for liberty they made threatening use of a smuggled revolver, bound two guards and locked them up after taking their keys from them, and kidnapping two other guards and the institution chauffeur. The three kidnapped men were released several miles north of Poughkeepsie, but there all trace of the fugitives was lost. The men who escaped were: John Hawkins, New York, charged with murder; John Coffey, 25 years old, New York, said by the police to be a notorious thief; Marcus Curtis, 47 years old with a long prison record; admitted to the hospital after being arrested on a charge of felonious possession of explosives.

'Most Rough And Tumble Bible Class In The World' But Is Getting Good Results

NEW YORK, April 11.—(By the Associated Press)—The band of youthful warriors, which for years has had other East Side gangs begging for mercy—has formed an "I'm a Gentleman Club," and along with it what Salvation Army officers today described as "the most rough and tumble Bible class in the world."

The reason, according to army headquarters, is Miss Elizabeth Justice, attached to the Bowery corps, who took a hand in the making of Houston Street history only a month ago. Miss Justice declared that if the "gang" was to be reformed, it would not be through any patronizing program of "they's" work. The solemn effort had been made many times in the past, and failed. So Miss Justice just went down into the Bowery and made friends. Her broad smile and "man to man" manner of talking, made a hit with the "bunch."

Having decided to go in for ethics and religion, the gang proved militant crusaders, eager to pound the golden rule into the hides of their traditional enemies. Miss Justice admits that it may take weeks before she can teach her charges to turn the other cheek. Admittance to weekly meetings is obtained by pass-word "I'm a Gentleman." If a newcomer refuses to be orderly, a monitor kicks him into submission. If he fails to doff his cap on entering the hall, it is knocked off for him. If he opens his mouth during scripture reading, he does it only once. Dramatic moments attended the last meeting, the army revealed today. Miss Justice had announced that it would be a testimonial meeting. "The first boy did not just get the idea," she played hockey from school. "I got into four fights and got a busted nose," he said. Miss Justice detected a suggestion of pride in the boy's recital. She interrupted: "Our friend here has told you what he did last week. Now he will tell you what he is going to do next week."

"Next week," he blurted out, "I'm not going to do any of them things—" and before Miss Justice could realize what was happening, he had reached down into his ragged pocket and brought out a scarred pair of dice. These he turned over to her and asked her to throw them away. Others had been awaiting the opportunity to reform. A dozen surrendered their trophies. When the meeting ended, the table behind which Miss Justice was sitting, was filled with dice, cigarette and cigar butts, dime novels and decks of cards.

Too Young, Admitted Anyway
When a girl is too young to wed and unaccompanied lands at Ellis Island she is usually returned to the country whence she came. But immigration authorities broke precedent for Phyllis Curtis, 17, of Wales, when she said she was going to Nanticoke, Pa., to live with her sweetheart's parents until she is old enough to marry.

Hurled From Auto; Branded "He Is A Ku Klux Klaner"
CINCINNATI, O., April 11.—(By the Associated Press)—At the same time that a fiery cross was burning on the grounds of Knights of Columbus Hall in the western section of Cincinnati last night, two men, blindfolded and garbed only in their under-shirts and trousers, were hurled from an automobile in the heart of the city in view of scores of persons. On the back of each was stenciled "he is a Ku Klux Klaner."

Later two men appeared at police headquarters and reported they had been abducted by unidentified men who after taking them on a wild ride in an automobile, took most of their clothes and warned them not to take the matter up with the police "under penalty of death," threw them out on a prominent down town corner and sped away. The victims, who gave their names as William L. Miller and Edwin J. Birkhardt, salesmen, denied they were members of the Ku Klux Klan.

U. S. Bars Russian President's Wife

WASHINGTON, April 11.—(By the Associated Press)—As an avowed protest against the putting to death by the Russian soviet government of Vice General Butchkevich, the United States government will not permit Ekaterina Kallinin, wife of the Russian president, to set foot on American soil. Announcement was made by the state department yesterday that it has cancelled the authorization number which Mme. Kallinin has planned to visit the United States in connection with the American commission for the relief of Russian children. Despite the humanitarian purpose of her visit, the department, in a brief announcement of its decision, expressed the opinion that the "presence of Mme. Kallinin in this country is rendered wholly undesirable by the deep feeling which has been aroused."

"Jazz Bells" Used
YOUNGSTOWN, O., April 11.—(By the Associated Press)—The refrain of an old song, "Rings On Her Fingers and Bells On Her Toes," is being revived in Youngstown nowadays with the coming of "Jazz Bells," the latest innovation in dancing circles. The tiny bells, originated by a New castle man, fasten with clips to the shoe-tops and now are being worn by hundreds of dancers here and in nearby cities.

Herrick Flatly Refuses To Resign

COLUMBUS, O., April 11.—(By the Associated Press)—The next move in the controversy between Governor Donahy and State Highway Director Leon C. Herrick today, rested with the governor. Director Herrick in a letter to the governor late yesterday flatly refused to acquiesce to the latter's request that he resign and at the same time advised that he would not shoulder responsibility for the lack of road building in the state, this year. Anticipating that he would remain at his post until his appointment expires July 1, next, Mr. Herrick said, "this appointment was made for a specific term, in accordance with the law and you are hereby advised that the request is refused."

The governor requested Herrick's resignation in a letter Saturday. In reference to this year's building program, the highway department chief said "the director of this department does not feel agreeable to accept the responsibility for holding up the present road program, in as much as we have endeavored to co-operate and to obey every order issued from your department." Mr. Herrick also set forth that only 18 of 33 "regularly awarded" road contracts presented to Governor Donahy's finance director have been approved. Fifteen contracts are pending. To each instance, the director said, contracts were awarded lowest bidders and for the type of construction selected and approved by the county commissioners. In every case counties were to pay at least fifty per cent of the cost of construction. Replying to the governor in regard to use of local materials, he said "to the best of my knowledge, no opportunity to obtain the benefit or use of local materials was lost. Where circumstances permitted, the specifications in each instance were opened to every type that could be considered consistently."

Tried To Kill Detective

LIMA, O., April 11.—(By the Associated Press)—Elijah Brook, 27, colored, of Quinmon, Va., is in a hospital here with bullet wounds in one leg and one hand and Elijah Boone, 21, colored, of Huntsville, Ala., is in jail, charged with attempting to kill Earl F. Severs, D. & O. Railroad detective. The men tried to hurl Severs off the tender of a passenger locomotive south of here early today and a gun battle with officers took place when they alighted from the train at Columbus Grove, Ohio. Both were captured at West Cairo, a village nearby where they fled, pursued by a posse. Lady Astor Rebuked LONDON—Lady Astor is rebuked in house of commons for calling an opponent to her anti-liquor bill "village donkey."

Miss Ivy Cummings recently won the sports model event in an English auto meet, getting home ahead of a number of mailed rivers.

Dances On

CLEVELAND, O., April 11.—(By the Associated Press)—Miss Helen Mayer, 21 years old, who started dancing at 9:35 o'clock yesterday morning in a local dancing academy in an endeavor to beat a record of fifty hours and two minutes of continuous dancing in New York Monday night, was still at her task at noon today. Her first partner dropped out of the test this morning after twenty-three hours' activity. A physician who examined Miss Mayer at noon said her heart action is normal. Her food is milk, soup and other stimulants.

Dies At Age Of 105

GALLIPOLIS, O., April 11.—(By the Associated Press)—Eliza Wells, said to be the oldest negro living in this section of the Ohio Valley, died here today at an age said to be 105. She had been a member of the Baptist church for 50 years.

NEW YORK—Public health service reports 555 cases in United States of disease commonly known as sleeping sickness in the first three months of this year.

Capture Reported, Later Denied

LONDON, April 11.—(By the Associated Press)—Free state forces are not on the heels of Eamon DeValera, Countess Mariekevich, Don Breen and other prominent Republican leaders and their capture is hourly expected, says a Belfast dispatch to the Evening News today.

LONDON, April 11.—(By the Associated Press)—Eamon DeValera, the Republican leader, has been captured, according to a Central News dispatch this afternoon. The Central News message received from Dublin says Don Breen also was taken prisoner, the two men being captured at Clonmel this morning.

DUBLIN, April 11.—(By the Associated Press)—Free state army headquarters this afternoon officially contradicted the report that Eamon DeValera had been captured.

(By the United Press) Eamon DeValera, former president of the "Irish Republic" is the phantom rebel who has continually eluded capture and kept up an incessant warfare against the free state government since its establishment. National troops, who yesterday broke up an insurgent meeting at Clonmel, a southern village capturing Liam Lynch, who later died of wounds, pursued DeValera and Don Green, another irregular leader, throughout the night. Green was also reported captured. The Countess Mariekevich was with the rebel leader at Clonmel, and she also was sought today. DeValera is one of the last outstanding leaders, with possible exception of the Countess, who is herself an ardent and influential rebel. One by one the Republicans, who held out against the free state and were responsible for the death of Michael Collins and other national figures have been killed or captured. Rory O'Connor, Erskine Childers, Liam Deary, Harry Boland, long line of rebels who fought the government of Cosgrave and Mulcahy, are all dead. Execution of DeValera in event of capture, has for some time been predicted.

Harvey Coming Home To Manage Harding Campaign

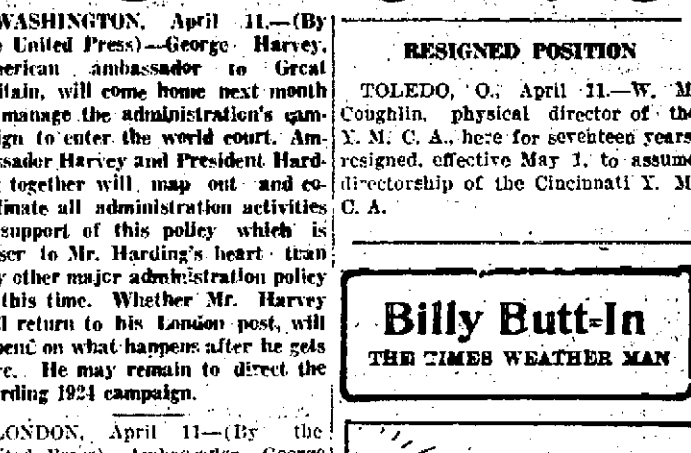

WASHINGTON, April 11.—(By the United Press)—George Harvey, American ambassador to Great Britain, will come home next month to manage the administration's campaign to enter the world court. Ambassador Harvey and President Harding together will map out and coordinate all administration activities in support of this policy which is closer to Mr. Harding's heart than any other major administration policy at this time. Whether Mr. Harvey will return to his London post, will depend on what happens after he gets here. He may remain to direct the Harding 1924 campaign.

THE TIMES WEATHER MAN

Liner Aground

SEATTLE, WASH., April 11.—(By the United Press)—The painted ex-German liner Susquehanna, carrying passengers and a large cargo of federal freight, went ashore near the mouth of the Columbia River this morning, according to notices received at the Harbor Radio Station here. The crew and passengers are reported to be in no immediate danger, but the wireless said the vessel was fast aground. The Susquehanna sailed from Seattle April 7 for South American ports. She is listed to Gillespie & Co., and was formerly in the Atlantic service. Tugs have been dispatched to her assistance.

PLAN TO OBSERVE "HEALTH WEEK"

Comprehensive plans for a definite observance of Health Week in Portsmouth during the second week in May were made public last night by the Hampstead Academy of Medicine. A special committee meeting was held this afternoon, with a special committee in charge, including Dr. J. G. Lockhart, O. D. Fajie, Dr. H. W. DeGraw and Dr. W. C. Quinn.

Included among the plans which were discussed at this committee meeting this afternoon was free clinics for tuberculosis, trachoma, pre-natal and post-natal cases. These clinics will be open to all laymen who feel that they need information on these subjects as well as to secure adequate medical advice on other diseases. Besides advice it is expected that charts and literature will give pertinent information of interest to the general public.

One of the outstanding features of Health Week, if present plans mature, will be a huge baby show and parade open to all Portsmouth babies between the ages of three months to five years. It is expected that the show will be divided into three classes: First-class, babies, from 3 months to 11-2 years; second-class, 11-2 to 3 years, and the third-class, from 3 years to 5 years. Definite rules and regulations will be formulated based upon physical fitness and other important qualifications.

"BLOOD THAT IS THIN AS WATER"

Poor Nutrition and What You Ought to Do About It

At this season of the year, when you find that you have become weakened, underweight, pale and thin, you ought to realize your danger.

Your blood has been thinned and weakened. You are not gaining the strength you need from your food.

Then is the time that you need Father John's Medicine, which is a scientific blending of cod liver oil with other ingredients in such a way that its food elements are easily taken up by the blood and turned into new strength and health.

If you need a tonic, remember that Father John's Medicine does not stimulate, because it is free from narcotic drugs, but it does build new flesh and strength, because it is all pure food and wholesome nourishment. —Advertisement.

Twenty-four Years Ago

Col. Sam Patterson, of the county of Pike, was in town with the state senatorial bee buzzing loudly all over him.

Thieves raided the chicken roost of Philip Ruhman, the dairyman, and carried away sixteen of his fat hens.

A C. P. & V. brakeman named Tracy, sustained the loss of two fingers when his hand caught by the bumpers while he was making a coupling on Bateria hill.

David Stoner, High School student, and phenomenal baritone singer, received several flattering offers to go on the vaudeville stage.

Isiah Noel, prominent Clay township farmer, died at his home on the Chillicothe pike. He was born in 1835.

Assessor Charles Windel, of the Fourth Ward, haunted the footsteps of the proprietors of the Kilgore and Barber Bros. circus in an effort to get them to list their circus equipment for taxation.

Attorneys T. C. Beatty and R. C. Myers moved their offices to the Findeis block.

Ankle Broken

Bertha Gammon, 14 years old, Si-loam, Ky., girl, was treated at Hampstead hospital yesterday for a broken ankle which she sustained in a fall from a horse nearly a week ago. It was at first thought the ankle was only sprained but an X-ray showed that a bone had been fractured.

Bats Instructions On Redemption Of Victory Notes

The following information on the payment of Victory notes was received yesterday by Postmaster Harsh from A. W. Nathan, Secretary of the Treasury.

All 4-4 per cent Victory notes bearing the distinguishing G. H. J. 3, K, or L prefix to their serial numbers become payable according to their terms on May 30, 1923, and interest thereon stops on that date. Holders of these notes may present them in advance of May 30, either for immediate redemption at par and accrued interest to the date of optional redemption, or for payment on May 30 at par and accrued interest to that date. Holders of registered notes are urged to present them well in advance, in order to avoid delays in the discharge of registration.

All 4-4 per cent Victory notes bearing the distinguishing letters A, B, C, D, E, or F prefix to their serial numbers were called for redemption on December 15, 1922, and ceased to bear interest on that date, pursuant to the terms of the call for redemption. Holders of called 4-4 per cent Victory notes should promptly present them for redemption, in order to avoid further loss of interest.

Banks and trust companies generally are handling these transactions for their customers, or, if desired, presentation may be made direct to the Treasury Department, Division of Loans and Currency, Washington, D. C., or to any Federal Reserve Bank or branch. All holders of Victory notes are urged to look up their holdings and arrange, preferably through their own banks, for prompt presentation of the notes for payment.

THE BUILDING BOOM started in 1921. That Fall, 5,000 home-owners who had ordered radiator warmth with Arcola were disappointed.

Why? Because they waited until Fall to place their orders.

This year three times as many homes are being built as in 1921. Yet no more ARCOLAS can be produced this year than in 1921 because our factories are already over-taxed with orders for larger IDEAL Boilers.

ARCOLA is radiator and boiler in one—different from any others. It is connected with a genuine American Radiator in each room. Warm bed-rooms! Breakfast in a warm dining room! Protection for the children from colds and gripe!

The 5,000 home-owners who were disappointed in 1921 are 5,000 reasons why you should let your Heating Contractor give you an estimate now.

Milk Distribution In Public Schools Will Start Thursday

The distribution of a half pint of milk to each child, whose parents desire the service, in the first four grades of Portsmouth public schools will begin tomorrow morning. This was the decision at a meeting of the Board of School Supervisors yesterday afternoon.

Of the approximately 4000 pupils in the first four grades of the schools, 2385 will be supplied with milk. The parents of the remaining children do not wish their children to be supplied.

2118 children will be able to pay for the milk (three cents per half pint or 15 cents per week) while there are 238 who will be unable to pay. Their milk will be paid for by the Bureau of Community Service.

The following report was compiled from the answers to the questionnaire recently sent out to parents by Supt. Frank Appel, asking if they would want their children supplied with milk, and if so, whether or not they would be able to pay for it:

School	No. Pupils To Take Milk	Will Pay	Cannot Pay
Fourth Street	222	177	47
Mossie	240	218	22
Bond Street	131	109	22
Union Street	245	197	48
Eleventh Street	110	105	5
Lincoln	368	176	192
Offshore Street	119	109	10
Highland	379	370	9
McKinley	222	218	4
Campbell Avenue	263	198	65
Sciotoville	150	145	14

Garfield has not been included in this list because the pupils of that school have been furnished with milk for some time.

of Grandview avenue have returned from a visit with their relatives at Slocum and South Webster.

Mrs. Carl Bourgholtzer was a gracious hostess Tuesday afternoon
when she entertained a congenial group of friends at bridge at her attractive home, 1818 Robinson avenue.
The afternoon was devoted to the fascinating game of cards and later an appetizing three course lunch was served by the hostess, whose guests for the delightful affair numbered Mrs. George Schirman, Mrs. William Brandel, Mrs. Walter Ruhlman,
Mrs. Paul Williams, Mrs. Eugene
Crichton, Mrs. Edward Campbell,
Mrs. R. C. Spangler and Mrs. Gus
Mootor.

Mrs. Abe Gordon of Twenty-Second street who was operated upon in Christ Hospital, in Cincinnati yesterday, is getting along nicely, according to word received by relatives today.

Miss Ruth Thompson of The Ridge,
will receive the members of the Scoto
Bridge Club on Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Thomas Daniels of Bertha Avenue, is enjoying a two weeks
visit with relatives at Ashland, Ky.

Russel Egbert, Willard Craigman and William Daniels spent Sunday at Huntington.

Mrs. Bertha Nagel of Waller Street
who has been ill with malarial fever
is much improved.

Misses Elizabeth and Pricie Armstrong of Catlettsburg, Ky., have returned to their home after a visit with Mrs. Edward T. Anderson of Garfield Place.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Bugh of Kinneys Lane, have returned from a week's visit at Roanoke, where they were guests at the home of Mrs.
George Garber, and at Lynchburg,
Va., where Mr. Bugh attended an N.
& W. efficiency meeting.

Mrs. John Blum (Alta Marsh) of New Straitsville, Ohio, is here for a fortnight's visit with her mother, Mrs. E. C. Marsh of Eleventh Street.

George E. Carlyle and son Edward Carlyle of Second Street, are in Columbus attending a Brick Manufacturers Convention.

Mrs. John Williams of Chillicothe
Street, spent Tuesday in Ashland,
Ky., visiting with relatives.

On Friday evening the King's Herald and Home Guards of the Franklin Avenue M. E. Church, will hold an important meeting at the church.

The White Shrine Club will meet
this evening at the home of Mrs.
George Gims, 1023 Findlay Street.

The Herald and Crusaders of the First Baptist Church will meet Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs.
Roy Ferguson, 815 Murray Street.

Mrs. George E. Matthews of Three Oaks, Rose Ridge, will entertain the members of the American Legion Auxiliary at her home Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

C. S. Ricketts and son Willard have returned to Detroit after a week's visit with Mrs. Chris Green and other relatives and friends in this city.
They are former Scottdale residents.

The Otterbein Society of the United Brethren Church will hold a business meeting in Room 5 of the church on Friday evening from 6:00 to 7:00 o'clock. All members are requested to attend.

Mrs. E. D. Stevens of Fifth Street, has issued invitations for bridge for Friday afternoon when she will receive in honor of her niece, Mrs.
Adrian B. Arganbright, (Alice Vincent), whose marriage was an event of recent date.

Mrs. George Weide and little son
George of Fourth Street, are home from a brief visit with relatives at Waverly.

Mrs. Margaret Thomas and son Hi-V. Thomas of Logan Street, are home from a visit with relatives at Columbus.

Five to fifty votes being cast in the assembly, no single group of six or seven votes could have any more influence in persuading others to elect a certain candidate for judge than would the United States with one actual vote but with potential influence in Central and South America, where most of 18 votes are much more likely to follow the lead of the United States than a European power. Mexico, the Dominican Republic and Haiti are not represented in the league of nations.

The interesting phase of this argument which is being used by the Republican administration to justify participation in the world court is that precisely the same line of thought advanced by the Democratic administration, when the "six-to-one"
cry was raised, and it is a fact that the alleged equality of voting and the ambiguities of article ten were as instrumental as any other factor in preventing American acceptance of the covenant of the league itself.

The only difference is that the

GOOD LOOKS GOOD HEALTH

WENDELL'S SALTS, AMBITION
BRAND—that's the answer. Some of you ladies who read this may have complexion disfigured by liver spots
and discolorations. If this is the case, don't worry about it and don't use
face lotions. Just go at once to Wuer-ster Bros., and get a large bottle of
WENDELL'S SALTS, AMBITION
BRAND, for only sixty cents. It will clear your complexion by helping to drive from your system the poisonous
uric acid that is affecting your liver, stomach and kidneys. A poor, rough, mottled skin isn't due to the sun or weather, but to an upset condition which uric acid usually causes. Go to the root of the trouble. Destroy that acid and your good looks and health will return.

WENDELL'S SALTS, AMBITION
BRAND, is a wonderful preparation for indigestion, biliousness, constipation, headache, rheumatism, malaria, nervousness, kidney troubles—when caused by uric acid poison.

Remember WENDELL'S SALTS,

United States would have even more protection in the council on all matters other than the selection of judges for the world court as a unanimous vote of the council is required before any action can be taken and no important action of the assembly can be taken unless there has been unanimity of voting in the council.

If the Harding administration should succeed in convincing the American people that the six to one argument is pointless, it would help
the proponents of the covenant of the league in waging their battle too. Already the league itself has practically gone on record in favor of modifying article ten so that it will conform to the original reservation proposed in the American senate by Mr. Lodge of Massachusetts. George Wharton Pepper, United States senator from Pennsylvania, Republican, and a close friend of President Harding is openly in favor of revising the covenant to match up with the Lodge reservations and altogether the battle over the language of the covenant may be said to be revived so far as political Washington is concerned. Mr. Pepper insists that he would divorce the league of nations from any of the enforcement clauses of the Versailles treaty, a view tenaciously held by Secretary Hoover and expressed since he became a member of the Harding cabinet. The Pennsylvania senator declares also that he would give the council the power to recommend action to the respective governments but not to coerce. There always has been a difference of opinion as to whether the council had any but powers of recommendation at any time but the movement to make that point explicit will not be fought by the original league of nations demands and it is a coalition of these Democrats and the prolongue Republicans who can be expected to furnish the necessary two-thirds in the senate to ratify the protocol providing for American adhesion to the International Court of Justice.

There is some talk that the Democrats will endeavor to force the covenant to the fore again as a trading point in the senate, urging that the Republicans should support a modified covenant if they want Democratic help in putting the world court protocol through. At this stage of the proceedings this is purely speculative for the Democrats themselves have not really discussed the league of nations in any party conference since the campaign of 1920 and the probabilities are that they will go along with the Republicans on the world court proposal irrespective of whether there is any reciprocal support for a revised league or association of nations.

Only Gas

Pain Around Heart And Palpitation
Often Due To Gas Pressure.

Heart trouble is seldom accompanied by pain. Those sharp, knife-like pains felt in the region of the heart after eating, usually result from gas in the stomach pressing against the heart and interfering with its action. Neglect of this condition may lead to more serious trouble, hence you should lose no time
in getting rid of the cause of gas.

Baumman's Gas Tablets are wonderful for the relief and prevention of gas. They act upon the stomach nerves and glands, promoting digestion and helping to correct the weakness responsible for the trouble.

You can obtain the genuine Baumman's Gas Tablets in the yellow package, from the Slater & Streich Pharmacy and other leading druggists.

MINISTER SAYS GAMBLING MANIA IS PREVALENT IN HUNTINGTON

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., April 11.—Declaring that "in Huntington and elsewhere our citizens are unsuspecting of what is going on," Dr. J. Layman Mauze, of the First Presbyterian church in a statement Sunday on "Gambling and Betting" said that officers of the law should be required to perform "their sworn duty without fear or favor," and that there should be "no distinction between rich and poor, the banker and the butcher, the lawyer and the laborer, the club and the alley."

"The police should raid the notorious haunts of the aristocratic gamblers as well as places of the poor," the minister asserted.

"The gambling mania is so general among all classes, high and low, among all circles, social and commercial, and among all ages old and young that the public conscience has become blunted to the crime of it. The gambler breaks everyone of the commandments," declared the minister.

"Ruin, despair, suicide—these are the three swift steps by which many gamblers pass to their doom," said Dr. Mauze.

THE GREAT ELUSION

BY E. PHILLIPS OPPENHEIM

Copyright, 1922, by E. Phillips Oppenheim

RECAP HERE TODAY

Victory began between MICHAEL SAYERS, noted criminal, and NORMAN GREY, one of Scotland Yard's best detectives. JANEY, a girl from the Norman by the name of the Norman, had been seen by the police. Michael, who had been seen by the police, had been seen by the police. Michael, who had been seen by the police, had been seen by the police.

NOW GO ON WITH STORY

So the match started. The first hole was holed in four, and from then onward commenced a struggle which I can hardly think of, even now, without a shiver of excitement. Neither was ever more than two up, but toward the sixteenth hole, I began to realize that another factor besides skill was at work. Norman topped his second shot but jumped the bunker and lay upon the green. Michael carried the bunker with a perfectly played mashie shot, but pitched upon a mowing machine and came back to an almost unplayable place in the long grass. He lost the hole. Norman, who was as nearly nervous as I have ever seen him, muttered something about bad luck, but his adversary only shrugged his shoulders.

At the seventeenth hole Norman drove fairly well but was still sixty yards short of the green. It was the old Michael who took his stand afterward on the tee, hard and dogged. I saw his teeth gleam for a moment, and the whitening of the flesh around his knuckles as he gripped his club fiercely. He hit the most wonderful drive I have ever seen, long and low and straight. It carried on and on, while we watched it breathlessly. Finally it ran onto the green and ended in a couple of clubs' length of the hole. I gave a little gasp of relief, for from the first I had prayed that my husband might lose.

But I had reckoned without that unseen force. Norman topped his mashie shot, which bumped along the ground onto the green, passed Michael's ball, and to my horror, dropped into the hole. Even Norman himself seemed to have no words. He stood looking at the spot where his ball had disappeared, his face averted from his opponent.

Michael made no remark. He studied his putt long and carefully, hit it with a musical little click, and we all watched it run straight for the hole. At the last moment some trifling irregularity of surface seemed to deflect it; it caught the corner of the hole, swung round inside and came out again. It rested on the very edge, and we stood there waiting. Nothing, however, happened. Michael turned away, and I fancied that I saw a little quiver upon his lips.

At the eighteenth, a strong wind was against them. Norman, pulling a little, escaped the bunkers; but Michael, hitting a far better ball, carried them with a few yards to spare. Norman played a fine second and reached the green four or five yards from the hole. When Michael reached his ball, I saw him stop and look at it. His servant gave an exclamation. It was lying where a huge cloud of earth had been knocked away by some beginner and never replaced, without a blade of grass around it and on a downward slope. I looked across toward my husband.

"It isn't fair," I whispered hoarsely. "Move it with your foot. Norman can't see. Besides, I'm in the way."

Michael, who was choosing a club, just glanced up at me for a moment, and I felt as though I had said something sacrilegious.

"We don't play games that way," he rejoined quietly. "I am afraid this is going to be rather a forlorn hope, though."

He took a niblick, and against the wind he was only able to get about halfway to the green. This time, however, his ball was lying well.

"I play the odd," he murmured as he selected a running-up cleek. We waited breathlessly for the shot. Norman's caddy and Michael's servant, although they had no idea, of course, of the significance of the match, had gathered from our tense air that it was of no ordinary interest. We all watched Michael's ball, when at last he played it, spellbound. It was a low shot, beautifully straight for the flag, and I could scarcely keep back a little cry of joy when I saw it land on the green and run slowly two or three yards past the hole.

"A fine recovery," Norman said thickly. "My turn now to play the hole."

He took his putter and my heart sank as I saw him strike the ball well and firmly. For a moment it seemed as though he had holed it and the match was over. It came to a standstill about eighteen inches short.

"This for a half," Michael remarked as he went toward his ball.

trifle for a man. Out of it he drew what appeared to be his only card, a crumpled card, upon which was written, in Beatrice's handwriting, her own name. The card was smeared as though with the stain of criminal blood.

"I planned my death," he continued with a faint return to his old cynical smile. "Very much as I have lived my life—with my tongue in my cheek. Then I read in some French paper that Beatrice had sent flowers to the hospital for my funeral, and I felt all the better shame of a man who had done an ugly thing. I made what atonement I could. After having reached absolute safety, I risked my life in almost foolhardy fashion. I attended my own funeral. I stole that card, and one of the flowers from the grave. If ever she should learn the truth," he added, his face turned away toward the mountains, "I should like her to know that. She may reckon it as atonement."

I laid my hand upon his arm. Speech of any sort seemed to have become extraordinarily difficult.

THE last we saw of Michael was, in its way, allegorical. As we climbed one of the greater slopes of the golf club on the following morning, we saw two men on the other side of the river, walking steadily away from us along the path which led across the lower chain of hills toward the mountains. They carried knapsacks on their backs and long staves in their hands. They had, somehow, at that distance, the air of pilgrims.

"There goes Bonaparte, off on one of his mountain expeditions," the secretary, who was playing with Norman, remarked, pointing them out. "They say that he has made up his mind to climb that farther peak beyond the pass. Even the Banquo guides call him foolhardy."

I watched the two figures. I waved my hand in futile farewell. But Michael never once turned back.

SOCIETY

The Senior W. W. G. of the First Baptist church met Monday evening with Miss Inez Starcher, 1524 Tenth street, with Miss Essie Finch as the assistant hostess. It was decided at the business meeting to have the W. W. G. Girls of the Berean Baptist church of Sciotoville at the next meeting. It was also decided that a Prayer Band be formed to meet each Wednesday evening at the church at 6:30 o'clock. Every girl of the society is asked to be one of this little band as it is the only thing that will bring the Mission Circle up to the one hundred percent mark. After the business session a report of the World-Wide Guild Convention which was held at Cincinnati in March was given by the delegate, Miss Uteila Woods. Refreshments were served to the following: Misses Ella Bradbury, Helen Jones, Lillian Mitchell, Edith Chambers, Ruth Spence, Emma Spence and Inez Starcher.

Two new members were voted in, Miss Ruth Spence and Miss Helen Jones.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Helen Shonkwiler, 1622 Robinson avenue.

WORRIED DOY.
Your conscience must hurt you a wee bit, or you would not be so worried about it. However, I do not think you committed a very great wrong, since you have gone with different girls just to relieve your loneliness. Of course if you had been going with the same girl all the time, you would be feeling both girls and I don't think much of a man who would do that. If you have never told your fiancée about your Portsmouth girls, I think you should do so, or at least suggest that it might be a good idea for both of you to have other dates occasionally. If you don't want to grant your girl that privilege, you are not entitled to it yourself.

Dear Dolly—I wonder if you could

A SCHOOL GIRLS SUCCESS

Everything Depends upon her Health

Mrs. George E. Whitacre Tells of Her Daughter's Breakdown and How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Her a Healthy, Happy, Strong Girl

Every mother possesses information of vital importance to her young daughter, and the responsibility for her future is largely in her hands. When a school girl's thoughts become sluggish, when she suffers the consequences of wet feet, pains, headaches, fainting spells, loss of sleep and appetite, and is irregular, her mother should have a thought for her physical condition and try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which has proved a reliable aid to nature for just such conditions in so many cases.

This Mother Writes:
Mahoningtown, Pa.—"I would like to say a few words about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. About a year ago I thought it would be necessary for me to take my daughter out of school. She was losing weight, was nervous, and when she would come home from school she would drop into a chair and cry, and say, 'Mamma, I don't believe I can go to school another day.' I gave her Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and now she is a healthy, happy, hearty, strong girl and weighs 120 pounds. She has no difficulty in doing her 'gym' work, and she works at home every night and morning, too. I am a mother who can certainly praise your medicine, and if it will be of any benefit you may use this letter as a reference."—Mrs. George E. Whitacre, 621 W. Madison Avenue, Mahoningtown, Pa.

Every girl ought to be healthy and strong, and every mother wants her daughter to do well in school and to enjoy herself at other times. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a splendid medicine for young women just entering womanhood. Mothers can depend upon it. It is prepared from roots and herbs, containing nothing harmful, and has great power to tone up and strengthen the system, so it will work in a healthy and normal manner.

For nearly fifty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been used by women of all ages, and these women know its great value. Let it help your daughter, and yourself.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Private Text-Book upon "Afflictions Peculiar to Women" will be sent you free upon request. Write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Massachusetts. This book contains valuable information.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS by Olive Roberts Barton

GENERAL GOLD BRAID

The Wooden Soldiers Lay in a Row on the Ground

There was a loud report and when the smoke had cleared away Nancy and Nick saw a dreadful sight. The tin soldiers had put a big shooting cracker under the toy bridge and blown it up.

Something else had happened, too. Every one of the wooden soldiers in their brave red jackets lay in a long row on the ground.

"Are they all dead?" exclaimed Nancy in dismay. "Did the shooting cracker kill them?"

"No," said the Tinker Man, "but we'll have to hurry and help them up. They can't get up when they fall down because they can't bend in the middle."

"It's funny how they could all be hit at once," Nick couldn't help saying in spite of his hurry.

"Wooden soldiers are like ten-pins," exclaimed the Tinker Man. "When one gets knocked over, he falls against the soldier next to him and knocks him down, too. He falls against his neighbor and he falls, and so on down the line. No doubt the general got hit with a splinter off the bridge and fell backward, and that knocked them all over. General Gold Braid is always getting hurt."

All the time they were talking, the three of them were hurrying toward the scene of battle, and now they arrived at the field.

The tin soldiers had stopped fighting because there was no one left to shoot at, and the bridge being down they could not get over the river to capture the enemy.

They had jumped off their tin horses and were wiping the water off their steeds and off themselves too, to keep from rusting, as the wooden soldiers had used water guns.

Nick set General Gold Braid on his feet first, and soon they had the rest of the wooden soldiers on their feet in a nice even row.

"Thank you," said General Gold Braid stiffly. "Will you kindly look for my arms. I've lost them both, I believe."

One of the very delightful social functions of Tuesday afternoon was the bridge-shower given by Mrs. H. E. Cook and Mrs. Maurice Strayer.

At the spacious home of Mrs. Cook, 1318 Second street, complimenting Miss Helen Dowling, charming bride-elect of Mr. Howard E. Baughman.

Bright yellow calendars, which gave evidence of the happy springtime, were placed here and there in the rooms where the guests were received for their play, and also in the dining room, where the appointments were most attractive.

Seven tables were arranged for cards and at the close of several interesting games prizes for high and low scores were awarded to Mrs. Adrien B. Arganbright (Alice Vincent) and Miss Thelma Rieker.

Miss Dowling was presented with a beautiful basket of flowers. Later a delicious two course luncheon was served, following which Mrs. James E. Breese played the Mendelssohn wedding march and Misses Jane and Esther Carlyle acted as bride and groom, descended the stairway and wended their way to the dining room, followed by the honor guest and the coterie of guests. Here a clothes line was stretched about the room and hung to this were parcels containing bouquets and dainty tokens for the honored one.

Those enjoying the hospitality of the hostesses were Mrs. C. E. Dowling, Mrs. Loren Hitchcock, Mrs. W. E. Clayton, Mrs. Glen Edwards, Mrs. James E. Breese, Mrs. R. E. Pratt, Mrs. Lee Hamner, Mrs. Everett Drew, Mrs. Harry Revare, Mrs. Howard Harsh, Mrs. Adrian Arganbright, Mrs. Evan Williams, Mrs. James Williams, Mrs. David Williams, Mrs. Raymond Willsey, Mrs. H. Ren Selby.

Those present included Mr. and Mrs. John Sanford and children, Chester, John, Harry and George; Dorothy and Marie and Eugene Dayton; and Virgil Burgess of New Boston; Mr. and Mrs. M. Rambo and daughter Mildred; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schuler and children, Alice and Tony; Mr. Roy Schuler, Harry Scott, all of Sciotoville; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schuler and son Randall; Mr. and Mrs. Jess Rector and Mr. Will Laise of Portsmouth.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wigot and daughter Jess, Mrs. Alice Schuler and son, Warren, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Sanford and daughters, Florence and Lillian, of Scioto Trail.

Mrs. R. O. LeBaron of Talmage, California, will arrive here Friday for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Cook of Second street. Friends of Dr. LeBaron will be interested to learn that he is a member of the staff of the Nodocina State Hospital in Talmage.

The Friscillas will meet tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. Maurice A. Coe, 502 Glover street.

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

Dear Dolly—I am a man of 25 and in love with a girl of 15. Dolly, she says she loves me too, but she is not old enough to marry me. What do you think I should do about it?

BLUE EYES.
I think you should have your head examined. You probably have a man-sized body and child's brain. Don't ever tell anyone that you are in love with a fifteen year old girl, unless you love her the same as you would any other baby.

Dear Dolly—What would be a nice present to get a girl for her birthday. Do you think $20 or $30 would be enough to pay for a present? Now don't tell me to send her a birthday card, because this girl is worth more than two cents, and I am not like some of these candy ankles. Dolly, I have been one of your readers for five years and I want a quick answer.

THANK YOU.
If you don't mind spending money, why not add a little more to the amount you had in mind, and buy her an engagement ring. I imagine she would appreciate that more than anything else you could give her. Of course if you are not engaged, and never expect to be, you are not supposed to give a girl expensive presents, and very few girls would accept them. If you are not one of these candy ankles, you sure must be the officer's nightie. If you will call up the office of the steel plant or look in one of their trade journals you will find out the names and addresses of the sheet mills you inquired about.

Dear Dolly—I have been a reader of the Times for the past four or five years and we never miss a night reading your column. Dolly, I am 20 years of age and have been married 4 years. I have a nice husband. He is so good to me that he just treats me like a baby. We never quarrel or have any feelings against each other. We only disagree on one thing and that is about me going to work. I want to get a job and work and he says I have enough to do at home without working any place else. Dolly, is it all right to wear knickers horse back riding? Or am I too old to wear them? I am 5 feet, five inches tall and weigh 165 pounds. I would like to have a recipe for sea foam candy.

MRS. D. M. M.
I agree with your husband that you will find enough to do around the house. Knickers are all right for horse back riding, and you won't be too old to wear them as long as you are able to ride a horse. Here's your sea-foam candy: Two cups brown sugar, one quarter cup of water, let boil until it forms a soft ball in water, then add flavoring and white of one egg. Beat until creamy and drop on waxed paper.

Dear Dolly—I am coming to you for a little information on behalf of my courtship. With my limited knowledge of love affairs I cannot settle the matter satisfactorily. Dolly I have been paying court to a certain lady living in Kentucky whom I hope to marry some day, but I have been working in Portsmouth for the past four months and since I have come here, I'll admit that I have been slipping in more ways than one. My Kentucky girl has been true to me, and I have been true to her, with, as I said before, when I came to Portsmouth. Now Dolly, the question, I want to get at, is, have I done wrong to the girl I have been paying court to, for so many years, by going with other girls. I know my steady has all kinds of confidence in me, and I would be horrified if she thought that I paid court to other girls while I have been in Portsmouth. Dolly, we were to have been married early in January but circumstances over which I had no control prevented us from doing so. There is no date set for the wedding now, but is it understood that we will be married some sweet day. Please inform me if I have done the lady any wrong by not being true to her. She comes from a good family and is a dandy girl.

WORRIED DOY.
Your conscience must hurt you a wee bit, or you would not be so worried about it. However, I do not think you committed a very great wrong, since you have gone with different girls just to relieve your loneliness. Of course if you had been going with the same girl all the time, you would be feeling both girls and I don't think much of a man who would do that. If you have never told your fiancée about your Portsmouth girls, I think you should do so, or at least suggest that it might be a good idea for both of you to have other dates occasionally. If you don't want to grant your girl that privilege, you are not entitled to it yourself.

Dear Dolly—I wonder if you could

in love with a fifteen year old girl, unless you love her the same as you would any other baby.

AIR-COOLED CHEVROLET ON WAY

The copper-cooled Chevrolet, of which so much has been heard in the motor world, will soon become a reality in this city as Dealer Alex. M. Glockner received word Wednesday that a carload was enroute from the factory.

It is the first car of the kind turned out by the Chevrolet company and it has been thoroughly tested and every test is said to be highly satisfactory. The machine will sell for $555 F. O. B., this being only a $70 increase over the non-air cooled machine of the same type.

ELKS INSTALL OFFICERS TONIGHT

Annual installation of officers will be held tonight by the Portsmouth Lodge of Elks and an impromptu minstrel will follow the installation. The committee has a number of surprises to spring and indications point to a large attendance. Miss Nello Gableman will give several of her latest dances as an added attraction.

Operation May Save Eyesight Of Sisler

ST. LOUIS, MO., April 11.—(By the Associated Press)—The illness of George Sisler, great first baseman for the St. Louis Americans, which has caused worry on the part of officials of the club and cast doubt among the followers of the team, will not permanently affect his playing ability, according to physicians attending him.

Following announcement that Sisler, who was adjudged the most valuable player in the American League last year, would soon undergo an operation for sinus trouble, the physicians today expressed the belief that the operation will not do more than delay Sisler's entry in the lineup this season. It was stated that the operation is not serious and under normal conditions, will not leave any serious after effects.

Boxer Dies From Burns

TOLEDO, O., April 11.—Albert Dewrose, 20, featherweight boxer, who used the ring name of "Babitt" Dewrose, died in a hospital here today from burns received last night in an accident at the plant of the United Alloy Steel Corporation where he was employed as an electrician. Dewrose was burned by molten metal when "slag" boiled over. Dewrose had been in various cities and towns in Ohio and Pennsylvania during the past three years. His father, Charles Dewrose, lives in Woodlawn, Pa.

SAY DEATH WAS ACCIDENTAL

The Chillicothe News-Advertiser says: Joseph C. Dye, 82, of near Richmond Dale, died after he had discharged one barrel of a double-barreled-shotgun into the pit of his stomach.

The suggestion of attempted suicide is discredited by relatives who stated Tuesday that while Mr. Dye was in good health and apparently in good spirits five minutes before they found him writhing in pain in the front yard.

97 Years of Helpful Progress is a great record.

S.S.S. has stood invincible through the ages...

Why? Because S. S. S. is made from Nature's select medicinal herbs—it is purely vegetable. Our own trained men gather them. And—because we extract from them their medicinal principles while they are yet fresh.

Visitors welcomed to our laboratory. We wish you could see our two hundred men in the fields every winter when "the sap is in the ground" carefully selecting the roots of these herbs, and then follow them to our laboratory (which is always open to visitors), and watch their preparation into the finished medicine—you would be convinced.

What S.S.S. does for the Blood
S. S. S. hits at the very basis of most diseases, because, by furnishing the organs with fighting blood, it enables the organs to fight off disease. Pure blood is the world's greatest fighter. S. S. S. is the most powerful blood-cleanser and blood-cell-builder in existence. As it builds up your blood-cells, every organ in your body feels increased activity, your elimination is improved, your secretions are stimulated, the accumulation of waste products and impurities decreases, your appetite is improved, cell-tissue is increased, your weight is built up to normal, appearance of age is lessened, vigor is increased, complexion clears, rheumatic pains leave. All this, because more blood-cells enable the blood to fight off disease, and get the strength and richness which Nature intended it to have. S. S. S. does it!

Fortify your Blood
S. S. S. has solved the problem of health and strength for millions. It is based on Nature's common sense. A trial of S. S. S. will prove the fact. When you have proven it, our greatest reward will be that we have lifted you out of physical distress, given back to your body its birth-right to health, and made another mortal heart happy.

S.S.S. is recommended for:
Pimples, Boils, Eruptions, Blackheads, Blisters, Acne, Rash, Tetters, or Eczema, Rheumatism, Poor Blood, Weak Spells, Run-Down Condition, Loss of Appetite, Nervousness, Thinness, Poor Complexion, Scrawny Neck, Thin Limbs, Hollow Cheeks.

Mr. W. T. Hooker, 2321 Proctor Street, Port Arthur, Texas, writes: "I suffered from Eczema for seven years and was afflicted with nervousness. I tried S. S. S. and six bottles cured me. I now enjoy good health. I think S.S.S. the only cure for blood disorders on the market."

S.S.S. is sold by all good druggists

Amazing Royal Romance Revealed By Document

LUXOR, EGYPT, April 11.—(By the Associated Press)—An ancient Hittite document recently unearthed in Anatolia discloses an amazing royal romance in which Queen Ankhamen, consort of Pharaoh Tutankhamen, was one of the principals. It also appears that the queen was banished by Tutankhamen's successor, the Pharaoh The Ay.

The document has been translated by Prof. Archibald H. Sayce, one of the leading Babylonian and Egyptian scholars of Great Britain. It reveals the extraordinary fact that while King Tutankhamen's body was still upon its bier, awaiting burial, his 27-year-old wife dispatched an ambassador to the king of the Hittites to induce the king to give her one of his sons in marriage.

"My husband is dead," said the Egyptian queen to the Hittite ruler through her ambassador. "I have no children. Your sons are said to be grown up. If you will give me one of them, and if he will be my husband, he will be a great helpmate. I send him gifts."

The king of the Hittites apparently doubted the motives and good faith of the Egyptian queen. He replied to her overtures:

"The son of your lord (the king) where is he? Have you deceived me? The general of the army (Horemhu) has not nominated my son to the kingship."

The queen thereupon rejoined: "What is this you say? I have deceived you? If I had a son and my people had a ruler, I would not have sought the hand of a man from another country. No one has had child after me. I have no son. Give me one of your sons as my husband and he shall be king of the land of Egypt."

The document shows that the royal romance was almost completed by the king of the Hittites giving the fair suitor one of his sons; but just as the marriage was about to be celebrated, King Ay seized the throne of Egypt, and the hapless queen was banished.

Present history and archaeology show no trace of Queen Ankhamen. She seems to have entirely disappeared from view after "King Ay" usurped the throne. It was known only that she was the real inheritor of the throne, and that Tutankhamen owed his kingship entirely to her rights of royal succession. It is presumed that Ay's motive in banishing her was to prevent a foreigner from ruling over Egypt, especially a hated Hittite.

American archaeologists who gave the text of the amazing document to the Associated Press correspondent, regard the foregoing circumstances as one of the most dramatic revelations in present day knowledge of Egyptian history. The Hittite narrative, they say, makes it clear that Tutankhamen did not have progeny to continue his flourishing regime. It also makes it extremely unlikely, they add, that the body of Queen Ankhamen will be found in the Royal Necropolis.

Switch Thrown By Persons Unknown To Me

CORONER'S VERDICT
Coroner Virgil Fowler has completed his investigation of the deaths of N. & W. car repairers, Benjamin F. Winters, and E. C. Howard, who were killed in the N. & W. yards at East Portsmouth last Thursday morning. He examined members of several train crews, who had been working in that vicinity and learned that cars had been switched on the adjoining track and over the repair track switch several times between 8:40 and 10:40 a. m.

The coroner's verdict follows: "Benjamin F. Winters and E. C. Howard were killed as the result of an open switch thrown by persons unknown to me."

A cut of eight cars was set in on the repair track where Winters and Howard were working on a damaged car.

May Adjust Gas Row

CLEVELAND, O., April 11.—(By the Associated Press)—Attempts to settle rate dispute between Cleveland and the East Ohio Gas Company, were started today on the heels of the decision of the state supreme court extending the time for the company to discontinue its service to July 1 one petition of City Law Director Paul H. Lamb, to modify the court's previous ruling setting May 1 as the date for the shut off.

A joint meeting of the judiciary and public utilities commissions of the city council, was called for this morning to discuss new negotiations. Mayor Fred Kohler and Director

Lamb were invited to attend. Council John Marshall, chairman of the committee, said officials of the company would be invited to meet with the committee in the afternoon.

Martin B. Daly, president of the East Ohio Gas Company, said that they are ready to meet with them, but our last proposition was our final proposal. He said that the postponement of the shut off did not alter the situation as far as an agreement is concerned.

Legion Excursion Friday

Friday night an excursion will be given on the steamer Homer Smith by James Dickey Post, American Legion, in an effort to raise funds for the $100,000 graves endowment fund, which is to provide for the decoration of graves of American soldiers buried in foreign countries for many years.

The 11,000 Legion Posts in the country will contribute to this $100,000 fund and through the boat excursion James Dickey Post hopes to raise its quota.

Tickets for the boat ride are at ready on sale and may be obtained from any Legion member.

"The American soldiers killed in the war number more than an entire division, 32,000," Chairman McLaughlin, of the Legion Publicity Committee, said last night. "These dead are buried in France, Belgium, England, Italy, Ireland, Scotland and Spain."

Poppy To Be Worn On Memorial Day

The scarlet poppy is to be the emblem of Memorial Day.

James Dickey Post, American Legion, and the Portsmouth Chamber of Commerce are back of the movement to make the poppy the universal Decoration Day flower.

Commander Harold Clayton of the Legion, last night issued the following statement:

"The scarlet poppy has been adopted by the American Legion for use on Memorial Day in honor of the men who fell in France. It will be worn by all members of the Legion."

"The Legion suggests a similar use of the poppy on Memorial Day by the public, and asks that we place this suggestion before the organizations in our membership. With this request we very gladly and sympathetically comply. It is our hope that organizations of business men will promote the wearing of poppies on May 30."

"From James Dickey Post of the American Legion and from the local unit of the American Legion Auxiliary, poppies may be obtained during the week preceding Memorial Day."

Logan—Frances Schroeder and Glee Club.
Essay—"Frances Thompson and the Hound of Heaven"—Helen Friel.
Essay—"The Thirteenth Century"

RECEPTION FOR NEW MEMBERS TO BE HELD AT FIRST CHRISTIAN TONIGHT

Regular prayer service, with an added feature of a reception for new members who have recently come into the church, will be held at First Christian at 7:15 o'clock tonight.

A special invitation is being sent to all of them, a fine program has been arranged and all the old members are expected to be there to help out.

Section 4 will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Browning Thursday afternoon. A good attendance is expected.

Thursday evening a special invitation has been extended to First Christian to attend the revival services at the New Boston Christian Church on Ohio avenue.

MRS. E. C. LISLE, COLUMBUS.
Yaeger Street Woman Overcomes Severe Case of Stomach Trouble, No Longer Has to Diet, She Says.

Mrs. E. C. Lisle, who lives at 1270 Yaeger street, Columbus, is another convert to the Ka-di-ok treatment which has helped hundreds of persons in this city, many of whom had suffered for years. She says: "I have been bothered with stomach trouble for years and have had to diet myself all the time or pay the penalty of having distressing pains and indigestion after eating; I have also been subject to severe pains in my back and was very nervous and fretful. I have taken several bottles of Ka-di-ok this year and feel like a new woman. I have had stomach trouble so long that I know when an attack is coming on. When I notice this indication of trouble now I immediately take a dose of Ka-di-ok and so far, it has never failed to correct the trouble. I have stopped dieting any more and eat anything that tastes good to me. I never had to diet this before. I would not be without a bottle of Ka-di-ok in the house for anything; it is the only remedy that has brought me relief."

Ka-di-ok can be obtained in Portsmouth at Fisher & Strick's Drug Store—Advertisement.

He was past 70 and is survived by a wife, one son and one daughter.

The Pike county chapter of the American Red Cross is starting a drive to raise $600 within the next few weeks. If this sum is obtained the national organization of the Red Cross will furnish an additional $600, and this will enable the Red Cross to keep a secretary here for welfare work until the next roll call. For some months past a secretary has been working in this county and has done a great amount of good. However, as the funds for this purpose have run out it is necessary to raise $600 if a welfare worker is kept here the rest of the year. It is planned to raise part of this money by giving entertainments. Frank B. Logan, the noted cartoon lecturer of Waverly, has volunteered his services and will give three chuck talks, the proceeds to apply on this fund. The first entertainment will be at Wakefield on April 20th. Others will be given at Stockdale and Beaver. It is hoped the public will give hearty support to the Red Cross in raising this fund.

Rheumatism

A Remarkable Home Treatment Given by One Who Had It
In the year of 1912 I was attacked by Rheumatism and it was a terrible experience. I suffered as only those who are so afflicted know. For over three years I tried every remedy, but to no avail. I was in a pitiful condition, had never returned to my normal health, and was bedridden, some of them twenty to thirty years old, and the results were the same as in my own case.

I want every sufferer from any form of muscular and subcutaneous (swelling of the joints) rheumatism, to try the great value of my improved "Rheumatism Treatment" for its remarkable healing power. Don't send a cent; simply mail your name and address, and I will send it free. If you have used it, and it has proven itself to be that long looked for means of relief, I will send you a copy of my book, "The Rheumatism Treatment," for the price of 10c. One Dollar, you understand. I do not want your money unless you are perfectly satisfied to send it. I am not a doctor, but I am a sufferer who has found relief in this offered you. Don't delay. Write today. Mark H. Jackson, 1000 E. Huron St., Chicago, Ill., N. Y.

Penfield Sentenced 21 Years To The Pen

CINCINNATI, O., April 11.—(By the Associated Press)—One of the heaviest sentences ever pronounced by a federal judge in the Southern Ohio district was given Augustus H. Penfield, former cashier of the Springfield, Ohio, National Bank, late yesterday, following his plea of guilty to seven of nine counts of an indictment charging him with having embezzled nearly a million dollars of the bank's funds.

Penfield was sentenced to 21 years' imprisonment in the Atlanta penitentiary by Judge Smith Hickenlooper.

In a confession to National Bank examiners, the former cashier stated he used the bank's money to speculate in stocks and grain.

According to a report of Albert Smith, department of justice expert, Penfield's losses from this speculation up to March 2, two days previous to his arrest, amounted to $794,000.

Penfield will be taken to Atlanta in a few days.

Pleasant Green Baptist Church News

An interested audience listened to the lecture of Samuel Wise at Pleasant Green Baptist church Tuesday night and enjoyed it. Members were unanimous in their praise to Mr. Wise and feel most grateful to him for bringing such a beautiful story of the Holy Land.

The Busy Bee club under whose auspices the lecture was given realized a neat sum to add to the building fund for the new church, which will be started towards completion within a few days.

Great things are happening at Pleasant Green these days. Sunday afternoon eight were baptized and eleven members added to the church membership.

There has been a ladies' club added to the Sunday school which will materially increase the interest in this department which means so much to the church.

Mr. B. R. Reed is in Columbus on business but will be home in time for the prayer meeting service Wednesday night and all members should be present. This church has a large if not the largest prayer meeting attendance in the city.

The next program of interest will be the Hunting Trip lecture by H. T. Bannan, the date to be announced later. This will be under the auspices of the Sunday school, Prof. E. M. Gentry, Supt.

Wm. Rutherford is the efficient prayer meeting leader.

Liquor Cases To Go To Higher Court

Hearing of the cases of fourteen alleged liquor law violators in Squire J. L. Ricker's court at New Boston was completed Tuesday afternoon.

During the afternoon session of the court John "Bull" Davis was fined $400 and costs. New McGraw, $500 and costs. Phillip Herder, $400 and costs. Frank Walters and Morris Sizemore, dismissed, and P. F. Hogan fined $300 and costs and Richard Montgomery $300 and costs and Pete Grachen $100 and costs. Second charges against Love, Henry and Herder were dismissed.

Herder, George Jones and George Bumgardner were sent to jail in default of payment of fines. Jones was fined $300 and costs and Bumgardner $400 and costs yesterday morning.

The others obtained their release on bond which was double the amount of their fines. Attorney Horace Small defended the men who gave bond and he has signified his intention of carrying the cases to the Common Pleas court on error.

G. A. Paff, Head Of Wire-Rod Mill Makes Splendid Talk To Kiwanians

Every Kiwanian who was present at Wednesday's noon day luncheon held at club headquarters will agree to underwrite a lecture tour for Geo. A. Paff, should that Kiwanian decide to relinquish the making of wire rods and go on Keith time. Mr. Paff was the orator of the day at Wednesday's meeting, and he scored a distinct triumph. Possessing an unusual amount of wit and having the mannerisms of a star monologue artist, Mr. Paff's address was not only pleasing but highly instructive, with enough quaint and original humor thrown in to stamp him as one of the most entertaining after dinner speakers in this part of Ohio. Mr. Paff told how wire was made from the big billet and how one of the latter was drawn out to the 32nd strand and back as far as Chillicothe. Mr. Paff believes the time will come when the billet will be of sufficient size or the wire of such a fine strand that it will not only reach from here to Columbus and back, but there will be enough wire left for William Titchell to string every radio outfit in the city.

Seriously Mr. Paff gave the Kiwanians a clear insight into the making of wire, showing specimens of various strands. He stated when the new mill here was under full headway that at least 1000 men would be employed. He touched upon the house-

ing condition in his short talk, which was interspersed with much humor and he quoted scripture with the freedom of a minister. (Applause.)

Mr. Paff stated that at some future date he would be glad of the opportunity to escort the Kiwanians through the new wire and rod mill and allow them the pleasure of seeing it in operation. Dinner would be served in the Whitaker-Glessner restaurant.

C. C. Caudill, assistant to general manager G. W. Moore, was a guest of the club and made quite a happy little talk when introduced. The meeting was practically a 100 per cent affair, and one of the best in the history of the club.

Paper Mills Raise Wages

NEW YORK, April 11.—(By the Associated Press)—The International Paper Company today announced a general wage increase in all its mills, effective April 15. Details of the increase are being worked out and will be made public in a few days. It was stated at the offices of the company.

Buy New Home

Edwin L. Shump has closed negotiations for the sale of Frederick D. Lauderman's eight room modern home on Baird avenue near Seventeenth to Mrs. Nettie L. Mathlot, who now resides at Eighth and Emdur street. Mrs. Mathlot and family will take possession of their new home at once.

It Never Bothers a Motorist

The flare of headlights is a menace to motorists, but the glare of pedestrians is wholly harmless.

Garage Being Razed

Merle O. Dudit has a force of men razing the garage, a landmark in the rear of the John E. Williams home, Second and Union streets. Three houses will be erected on the strip of ground recently acquired by Mr. Dudit.

The Child's Sea

A child would take a sample of it (the sea) in a bucket, and then it would know that the sea is a great many bucketsful of water, and further that by an odd freak of destiny this water is not fit to drink. Storms and ships and sand castles and lighthouses and all the other side-shows would follow later; but in the meantime the child would have seen the sea in a bucket, as it had previously seen the moon in a glass, and the moon is a variable and interesting kind of lamp; the sea is buckets and buckets and buckets full of water. I think the stars are holes in a sort of black curtain of ceiling, and the sun is a piece of bright brass, except at sunset or in a mist, when it is a whole Dutch cheese. The world is streets and fields and the seaside and our house—Richard Middleton, in "Children and the Sea."

Prince of Wales In Unscheduled Thriller

Pop! The Prince of Wales lands squarely in the middle of a water jump in the Army point-to-point near Reading England. His highness waded out and pulled himself up, Ocean III, after him.

SOCIETY

One of the attractive events on the social calendar this afternoon was the second of the two enjoyable bridge parties given this week by Mrs. Hayden Bush at her home, 912 Second street. The same lovely appointments that characterized the charming affair of yesterday were apparent this afternoon, and the time was pleasantly occupied in playing bridge until five o'clock, when a delicious salad course was served at the small tables. Mrs. Bush, whether presiding over a large or small affair, is always a delightful entertainer. Her guests this afternoon numbered Mrs. Eric Ferguson, Mrs. John Tebbles, Mrs. John C. Miller, Mrs. Frank Kendall, Mrs. Frank E. Adams, Mrs. Charles D. Scudder, Mrs. Grant Williams, Mrs. George M. Osborne, Mrs. Charles Waldron, Mrs. Edward Moller, Mrs. Joseph B. Peebles, Mrs. Cecil S. Miller, Mrs. David C. Williams, Mrs. Jennie K. Williams, Mrs. Floyd E. Fuller, Mrs. H. H. Lake, Mrs. Harry W. Miller, Mrs. Ralph Marling, Mrs. Howard C. Feyer, Mrs. Gilbert D. Walke, Mrs. Harry Revare, Mrs. Louis D. Corson, Mrs. J. Leigh Watkins, Sr., Mrs. T. M. Patterson, Mrs. Lev. Dee York, Mrs. Adrian B. Arganbright, Mrs. Raymond D. York, Mrs. Milton H. Longfellow, Mrs. Heron M. Johnson, Mrs. Arthur H. Moore, Mrs. James H. Varner, Mrs. John L. Neudorfer, Mrs. Charles E. Hall, Mrs. J. Leigh Watkins, Jr., Mrs. Watkins Kearns, Mrs. Wells A. Hutchins, Mrs. Lunsford P. Haldeman, Mrs. J. N. Ellison, Mrs. Henry T. Bannan and Mrs. H. A. Marling of Cleveland.

Misses Helen Haldeman, Lena Hauck, Bess Pixley, Clara Waller, Laura Haldeman, Katherine Hall, Grace Wilhelm, Edna Hauck, Vere Crawford, Margaret Crawford, Helen Strelch, Kate McConnell, Eliza Dunn and Josephine and Isabel Kinney.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kuehman entertained with an attractive birthday dinner last evening at their home, 1805 Highland avenue in honor of the eighth birthday anniversary of their winsome young daughter, Doris Ann Kuehman. The table was charmingly appointed for the occasion and places were marked for Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Silver, uncle and aunt of the honor guest; her grandmother, Mrs. William Kuehman, her cousin, Miss Helen O'Leary, of Ironton, her sister, Miss Katherine Kuehman, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Kuehman.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Applegate of Seventeenth street has returned from a ten days' visit with relatives in Cincinnati.

Miss Pauline Oakes of 1726 Eighth street will arrive home tomorrow noon from a five months' sojourn in Winter Haven, Florida. While there she was the guest of her brother, Asher Oakes.

Mrs. D. W. Shoemaker has returned to her home in Pelee after a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Oakes of 1726 Eighth street.

Mr. John A. Oakes, who has been ill at his home, 1726 Eighth street for the past few weeks, was slightly improved today.

Mrs. J. R. Cooper entertained the Hope Circle of the Calvary Baptist church Tuesday evening at her home on High street. A splendid musical program was rendered after the business hour. Later a dainty refreshment course was served by Mrs. Cooper, assisted by Mrs. Louella Chapman and Mrs. William Craig.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Frank Craig on Linden avenue, the first Tuesday in May.

Miss Edna Bolan, who passed her ninth birthday anniversary Tuesday, April 10th, celebrated the event with a birthday party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bolan, 114 Gay street. Music and games provided the pleasures for the afternoon, after which ice cream and cake were served to the following:

Mildred Doll, Mary Margaret Doll, Rita Enslat, Paul Malone, William Walter, Gerald Ross, Ruth Montavon, Ruth Enslat, Roberta Diener, Marcella Malone, Robert Wilson, Mary Agnes Hanna, Julia Hanna, Helen Jahlan, Joseph List, Edna West, Christiana Escham, Vinson Francis, Rebecca Snyder, Ruth Holtzman, Clara Crowe, Thomas Deiner, Joseph Wellman, Gentry Becker, Jack Connelly, Elizabeth Jahlan, Mary Francis Holtzman, Margaret Bolan, Dorothy Holtzman, Mary Jane Bush.

Prizes were awarded in the donkey game to Roberta Deiner and William Walter, and in the peanut hunt the prizes were won by Rebecca Snyder, Ruth Holtzman, Marcella Malone and Vinson Francis.

Mrs. J. & Rardin's Sunday School Class of Bigelow church held their monthly meeting last evening at the home of Mrs. Ralph Delamater, 1001 Seventh street. There were twenty-one members present and after the business was disposed of Mrs. Lloyd T. Henderson gave two very enjoyable readings, and later refreshments were served.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. E. C. Brandon, 1229 Twenty-Fourth street, with Miss Ella Potts as the assistant hostess. The class voted to give $25 to the Hemstead Hospital drive.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Cook entertained informally with four tables of Five Hundred last evening at their attractive new home, 410 Gay street. After an enjoyable evening of cards an appetizing two course lunch was served to the following guests:

Mr. and Mrs. George Schirman, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Frowine, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Bowen, Dr. and Mrs. Ira Martin, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Gills, Mrs. Carlo Gerlach, Miss Pearl Rhodes and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Cook.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Tinger of the West Side announce the birth of a daughter last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. George Follard, who have been spending the winter with his son, Carl Follard, of 2108 Eighth street, have returned to their home in Keene, New Hampshire.

Miss Ethel Pickett of 2128 Ninth street is very seriously ill. She has been ill for the past few weeks. Miss Pickett is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pickett.

An unusually large crowd attended the box social given last evening by the Mooseheart Legion in their hall, Third and Washington streets. A neat sum was realized from the affair, which proved to be quite enjoyable.

A box social will be held at the Bear Creek United Brethren church Saturday night. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

The George D. Scudder Guild of the First Presbyterian church met last evening at the home of the Misses Charlotte and Anadora Marsh on Fifth street, with Mrs. Leslie Jacobs an assistant hostess. The meeting opened with the president, Mrs. Glen Edwards, presiding. During the business session it was decided to send delegates to the School of Missions next summer. The Bible lesson was given by Miss Clara Nunnemaker, after which a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments served.

Warner Chapman, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Warner Chapman, of 792 Grimes avenue, is recovering from an attack of the measles.

Two Autos Were Destroyed In Fire

SHERMAN, TECH, April 11.—Fire of unknown origin, partially destroyed the Sherman Tech store yesterday afternoon. The building is a one-story frame, formerly served as the garage for Camp Sherman headquarters of the American Red Cross, and is situated in the rear of the latter building which now serves as a students' store. Both structures are situated in the middle of the camp proper just south of the school mess.

Two touring cars, one belonging to W. H. McNamara, shoe repair school instructor, another belonging to H. E. Thompson, school auditor, and a motorcycle sidecar owned by George Donahue, city traffic policeman, were destroyed in the fire.

TROUBLES PILING UP FOR BENNER

The troubles of Robert Benner, arrested yesterday for issuing a worthless check in the sum of $10 to William "Taxi Bill" Wray, were further complicated Wednesday when two additional complaints were lodged against him in Municipal court, charging him with jumping bond bills aggregating $16.15. The complaints in these cases are Martha Holloway, 2928 Walnut street, and Henry Thomas. Benner succeeded in effecting a settlement of the check case and it was dismissed and the others were passed to give him an opportunity to raise the necessary funds to pay up.

Prisoners

(Continued From Page One) of the institution in which the quietest patients are confined. One of them obtained a revolver which is believed to have been hidden in the institution. About 1:30 a. m. the men held up Harry Wilson, night watchman, bound and gagged him and locked him in a bathroom after taking from him his keys. The keys, however, enabled them to get only as far as the corridor. Here they concealed themselves until James Coyle, a guard, approached on his rounds. They rushed Coyle in the face, shoved the revolver in his ribs and forced him into the key room. On their way they met another attendant, Edward Diger, to whom they administered the same treatment. After getting the keys to the outer doors, the quartet forced Coyle and Diger to accompany them. On their way to the hospital garage they met a third guard, Wyn Wilson, and compelled him to join the party. In attempting to start an automobile, they aroused Leroy Krom, hospital chauffeur, who was promptly taken captive.

The fugitives made Krom start the big touring car of Dr. Raymond E. C. Kleb, hospital superintendent. They locked William Wilson in the garage but took Coyle, Diger, and Krom with them. Hawkins drove the car. Near Poughkeepsie, they turned the two guards and the chauffeur loose. Krom, only partially dressed, slipped with the cold of the early morning and one of the fugitives wrapped blankets about him to keep him warm.

The automobile later was found abandoned near Poughkeepsie. In the meantime, failure of Harry Wilson to make his usual rounds, started an investigation which resulted in the discovery of the watchman trussed and gagged in the bathroom, an hour and a half after the get-away.

DISHONESTY ON PRETTY BIG SCALE TO BE BARED IN VETS' BUREAU

WASHINGTON, April 11.—(By the Associated Press)—A prediction that "dishonesty on a pretty big scale" will be revealed "here and there" by the senate investigation of the Veterans' Bureau was made today by John F. O'Ryan, special counsel for the investigating committee on the basis of information gathered by him in a preliminary survey of conditions.

General O'Ryan declined to go into details but indicated his belief that a gross degree of the very method of handling large funds in the bureau had encouraged irregularities. He said that wherever evidence of criminal acts was uncovered, it would be laid before the department of justice.

The inquiry he has been conducting for the past month has reached the stage, he said, where sessions of the senate committee itself probably will begin next week. He indicated that after several executive meetings the committee would be asked to make a tour of the country for personal inspection of various bureau projects. After that, hearings are to be opened here.

In predicting that dishonesty would be found in the past conduct of bureau affairs, General O'Ryan suggested that it was inevitable that where so much money was appropriated, there would be a psychological tendency to do everything on a lavish scale, in a hurry and without the proper safeguards. "It was almost an invitation to be dishonest," he added.

The committee counsel indicated that the complaints received would be divided into three groups. Those which cannot be substantiated will be dropped, he said, those where nothing criminal can be proved, but where he is satisfied there was something wrong, will be laid before the committee and those clearly involving criminality will be turned over to the department of justice.

Seek Higher Ups In Big Liquor Violations

CHICAGO, April 11.—(By the Associated Press)—A spring drive against liquor violations in Chicago got under way today when the federal grand jury, met under instructions from Judge James H. Wilkerson, to ferret out and bring to court the higher ups who "finance the huge deals which have become public recently."

Although Judge Wilkerson did not refer directly to the recent distribution of the stock of Grommes and Ulrich, liquor dealers who disbanded and divided 2,000 cases of fine liquors among coast stockholders, he gave the jury carte blanche to delve to the bottom of all liquor deals in Chicago.

Editors' Association, as director general of the new organization, announced its purpose was "to aid in the solution of local, state, national and international problems, by bringing the collective intelligence of the country to bear upon them."

As a fundamental step in this process, the organization, he said, will revive in the form of local assemblies throughout the country, the "Old time town meeting as an effective force in modern life."

Governors of all states, Mr. Adams said, would be asked to serve on the advisory board of the organization together with "representative men and women from every walk of life."

Who Has A House To Rent To War Veteran Who Must Vacate Home?

Members of the Women's Auxiliary of James Dickey Post, American Legion, have interested themselves in the plight of a war veteran and his family who have been ordered to vacate their dwelling by Friday, April 13. The war veteran is unable to work on account of illness.

The Auxiliary has funds to pay the rent if a home can be found for the man and wife and three small children. The present landlord has been offered his rent, the friends of the family say, but he insists on having the dwelling vacated.

The American Legion officers are endeavoring to get the man in a government hospital for treatment and it was through the Legion members that he was sent to Cincinnati where physicians acting for the government examined the man but have failed to report on the diagnosis.

Anyone having a house or knowing where a house may be rented for the family should get in touch with some member of the Legion Auxiliary.

FRIDAY IS ARBOR DAY

Friday, April 13, is Arbor Day. Citizens are urged to plant trees and shrubbery about the homes on this day. The Women's City Club last year planted sixty trees along Scioto Trail and this year expect to plant about 100. The first of these are expected to be here so they may be planted Friday.

There also will be appropriate programs in the schools with several staging tree plantings.

Purse Snatcher Busy

Mrs. Jennie Flowers of 1542 Fourth street was the victim of a purse snatcher last night about seven o'clock when a man grabbed her purse containing over $29 while she was on Lincoln street near Sixth.

Mrs. Flowers had been to Freund's pharmacy and an ice cream parlor at Galpin and Lincoln streets. She was on her way home and was accompanied by her aunt, Mrs. Margaret Drennen. The women did not notice anyone walking behind them as they neared the corner of Sixth and Lincoln but just before they reached the corner the purse was grabbed and the man fled down Sixth street toward Offshore.

Mrs. Flowers believes the man came out of the alley they passed between Sixth and Seventh streets. She did not get a good look at the purse snatcher but believes he was a man of middle age, heavy build and wore a cap.

It was announced by the American Legion boxing show committee today that the date of the next Legion boxing show would be Monday, April 23, at Bauman's hall. It is the intention of the committee to use Nig Blair in the final with Shifty Dando in the semi-final and with Curley White and "Kid" Golden in the prelims. Joe Anderson of Covington who tips the scales at 145 may be Blair's opponent and Andy Parker of Dayton may meet Dando. Manager Dave Sandow who will bring Parker here is expected to furnish opponents for White and Golden.

Golden recently came to Portsmouth from New York City and is said to have a fine record as a four and six round fighter. By contracting for Bauman's hall the fighters will have more dressing room and their will be more floor space for the seating of the fans.

Fiery Cross Burned On K. Of C. Grounds

CINCINNATI, O., April 11.—(By the Associated Press)—A fiery cross, constructed of two beams and covered with cotton, apparently saturated with an inflammable fluid was burned on the grounds of the Knights of Columbus Hall on Price Hill here last night. The burning cross broke up an organization meeting for the Cincinnati Community Chest Drive which is to begin in a few days.

When they discovered the blaze, officials of the Knights of Columbus and members of the Community Chest Team, endeavored to extinguish the emblem of the Ku Klux Klan. A call was sent for policemen, who arrived at about the time the flames had died down.

An investigation failed to reveal any trace of those who had planted the cross.

SOCIETY

Mrs. George Pressler entertained with an attractive children's party Tuesday afternoon at her home on Highland avenue in honor of the eighth birthday anniversary of her daughter, Mary Catherine. The afternoon was merrily spent in music, games and contests. Marion Robinson and Dorothy Whitworth were awarded prizes in the contests.

At five o'clock the guests were invited into the dining-room by Miss Jane Pressler, who assisted in serving a delicious pink and white ice course. The table was centered with a large white birthday cake mounted with eight gleaming pink candles. The favors were small pink baskets filled with mints.

The guests who helped to celebrate Mary Catherine's birthday anniversary were: Marion Robinson, Margaret Helbig, Louise Warner, Elizabeth Pitzer, Doris Kugelmann, Eva Joyce Unger, Dorothy Whitworth, Catherine, Marie and Anna Crabtree, Beatrice Fritz and Mary Catherine Pressler.

The honor guest was presented with many beautiful gifts by her little friends. All departed having had a delightful time and wishing her many more happy birthdays.

Mrs. Howard Moore was hostess to the members of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Bigelow Church Tuesday afternoon at her home, 710 Washington street. There were twenty-two members, two associate members and three visitors present.

The meeting was in charge of members of Group Seven, and the devotionals were led by Mrs. Ella Peterson. Mrs. Pearl E. Selby read the second chapter in the Study Book. Mrs. William H. Doerr read a very interesting paper on "Life in Mexican Mission Schools." Miss Evelyn Bowen gave a select reading. The Thank Offering amounted to $102. It was decided to have a Group Meeting at the church on Tuesday, April 24th. The meeting will convene at 10 a. m. and adjourn at 3 p. m. All the ladies attending are asked to bring their lunch, and coffee will be served at the church.

The committee in charge of arrangements include Mrs. William H. Doerr, Mrs. Ella Peterson, Mrs. W. E. Liston, Mrs. J. B. Mackay and Mrs. Louella Wendelken.

At the close of the meeting refreshments were served by Mrs. Moore and her assistant hostesses: Mrs. J. O. Selby, Mrs. Thomas Brand, Mrs. W. H. Doerr and Mrs. Oscar Boyer.

Crude Oil Prices Cut

PITTSBURGH, PA., April 11.—(By the Associated Press)—Important reductions in the price of crude oil were announced here today, the following new prices being posted:

New York Transit Company and Bradford district in National Transit "lines", $4 a barrel, a reduction of 25 cents; Pennsylvania grade in National Transit lines in Southwest Pennsylvania lines; in Eureka Pipe Lines and in Buckeye Pipe Lines, $3.75, a reduction of 25 cents; Corning, $2.15, a reduction of 15 cents; Cabell, $2.41, and Somerset, $2.20, a reduction of 35 cents.

Ragland was unchanged at $1.10.

Make Mile A Day

FT. MEYERS, FLA., April 11.—(By the United Press)—A party of 24 men and women blazing a trail through Florida Everglades, was within 25 miles of Miami today, according to word received here by Indian runners. The party, including five women, left here a week ago in nine motor cars, in an effort to go over the Miami trail from Ft. Meyers to Miami.

MIAMI, FLORIDA, April 11.—(By the Associated Press)—Search for the nineteen men and five women believed marooned or lost between here and Tampa in the Everglades, as a result of their attempt to make the first motor trip through that region was to be taken up by air today.

Measurable motor officials were encouraged by the reports of Indian runners who brought information that the party, with thirty miles of land ahead of them, was pushing on towards Miami at the rate of one mile per day. Bridges are constantly being built by members of the trail blazers, the runners report, where it is necessary to span impassable marshes and swollen streams.

Lodged In Jail

W. T. York, arrested by the Huntington authorities in that city last night on a warrant issued from the local Municipal court charging non-support, was returned to Portsmouth Wednesday noon by Deputy Sheriff Elza Canter and lodged in the county jail where he is held pending his hearing Thursday morning.

Hearing Thursday

The case of John Greer, 19 years old, charged with cutting with intent to kill Robert Lowther during a fight on Front street on the night of March 31 last, was continued until Thursday for hearing when it was called for trial today. This action was necessary in order to bring the prosecuting witness, Lowther, into court to testify. The accused, who stoutly denies the charge, is out on $500 bond.

Funeral Thursday

Funeral services for the late Mrs. Sophia Peterson will be conducted at 2 p. m. Thursday from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Baker of Oakland avenue. She passed away in Cincinnati Sunday and the funeral was to have been held today, but was deferred to permit out of town relatives to attend.

Blosser Dismissed

For lack of convincing evidence E. Blosser, East End young man, accused of stealing an auto tire from J. E. Shoemaker, was dismissed in Municipal court Wednesday. The defendant told a plausible story of having found the tire on Campbell avenue and of having disposed of it after he made inquiry in an effort to locate the owner.

Flord Unger, 13 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Flord Unger, 1715 Highland, suffered a broken left leg above the knee when he fell on the porch of his home this morning. The same leg was broken about three months ago just a few inches from where it was broken this morning. An x-ray of the leg was taken at the home by Virgil Fowler.

BOXING BILL UP
SPRINGFIELD, ILL., April 11—
(By the Associated Press)—A boxing bill embracing the most important features of the three already introduced in the House was reported out this afternoon. It will be presented in the House tomorrow and read for the first time.

The measure provides for a state athletic commission of three members appointed by the Governor at a salary of $5,000 a year, with a secretary at $4,000. The commission will make detailed rules for boxing, ten three-minute rounds to a bout and no decision matches are provided for. Participants must fight with white gloves and be licensed, and must undergo examination by a physician before fighting.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LEAGUE LOOMS AS STRONG POSSIBILITY

Sunday schools expecting to put teams in the City Sunday school league are urged to have a representative at a meeting to be held Monday night at Manly church.

Trinity, Manly, First Christian, Second Presbyterian, and Franklin Ave. M. E. have signified their intention of putting teams in the proposed league. First Presbyterian, First Baptist, United Brethren and First Evangelical have also been invited and it is possible that a couple of schools will combine to put in one team.

At last Monday night's meeting the representatives present were very enthusiastic over the proposition of playing each evening in the Industrial League lot as indications are there will not be an Industrial League this year. Last year a Sunday school league with games on Saturday afternoon only was not a success. With games every evening in the week giving teams at least one game or possibly two games each week it is thought that more interest can be injected into such a league this season.

Fournier Refuses To Sign With Brooklyn

NEW YORK, April 11.—Jacques Fournier, first baseman, formerly with the St. Louis Cardinals, refuses to report to the Brooklyn Dodgers, because of a small expense item.

It is reported that since Charles H. Ebbets, owner of the club, returned from the south Fournier has been willing to play with Brooklyn if Ebbets will pay the cost of moving his family and household furniture from St. Louis to Brooklyn.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO, on April 11, 1898, Joe Kelley, Willie Keeler and Hugh Jennings of Baltimore Orioles called holdout and return on old salaries.

HUNTINGTON TEAM IN FIELD AGAIN

The Huntington Boosters' baseball nine is to be in the field again this year. The team has already started practicing and will play its first game Sunday, April 20, with Charleston. Ray Maness is pilot of the nine this year and he will have such all-stars as Edler, Gibson, Clagg, Massey, Moran, Briggs, Crist, Hunt, CMarner, Sterling, Smith, Winters and Midkiff in the lineup.

PEEBLES TO HAVE STRONG TEAM

PEEBLES, OHIO, April 11.—The Peebles ball club has organized for the season of 1923 and is ready to look games for Sundays only during the coming season. This team made a good showing last year by winning 26 of the 31 games played. Indications are that the team will be stronger than ever this year. John Little will be on the mound for the villagers again. A special committee has been appointed to meet the visitors and see to their comfort while in the village. All games will be played on the local diamond this year. For games write or phone W. L. Smith, Box 160, Peebles, Ohio. Any team wishing to play Sunday, April 15th, at Peebles, call Peebles 118, at once so game can be advertised properly.

Fans Like To Follow Home Run Hitters

NEW YORK, April 11.—Following the baseball home run, hitters has come to be one of the most interesting of the fans' hobbies. League home run records last season were shattered like egg shells under pile drivers. They say in the training camps that 1922 records will go the same way.

Contributors to the home run records last year in the majors and leading minor leagues included four first basemen, two keystone sackmen, one catcher and 17 outfielders.

Rogers Hornsby, the St. Louis Cardinals' second baseman, led all circuit swatters, with 42. Other leading national league sluggers were: Fred Williams, Phillies, 26; and George Kelly of the Giants at Clifford Lee of the Phillies 17 each.

Ken Williams of the Browns, topped the American League with 39, and was closely pressed by Tillie Walker, of the Athletics, with 37 and Babe Ruth, champion, with 35. Ruth set the high mark for home runs with 59 in 1921.

Great Day In The Mornin'; Babe Ruth Goes To Plate 4 Times; Fans 4 Times

NEW YORK, April 11.—With all his printers' ink title—Sultan of Swat, Behemoth of Bust, Healer of Hit, Babe of Baseball—George Herman Ruth, the rightful king of home run hitters, feels uncrowned today.

Somewhere in the far west the Babe is ploughing eastward from Tulsa, Okla., with a heavy heart, sad memories, a strong resolution and the remainder of the New York Yankee team who won a game there yesterday from the Brooklyn Dodgers 5 to 4. Two Yankees and two Dodgers made home runs—but not Ruth.

Instead, Babe, the object of 2,000 school boy eyes, stood up and struck out four successive times—he only batted four times. After the game 1,000 hero worshippers followed their idol to the club house, cheering him but not in derision. Ruth was touched, and said: "I want to come back here next year. I'd like to hit a homer for your kids. I'd like to hit one a mile for you."

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, April 11

Jack Dempsey may never fight again.

Jack Kearns, the champion's manager, made that announcement last night after Dempsey had been elected president of the Great Western Coal Mines Company of which he is said to own the controlling interest.

"This proposition is so big," Kearns said in detailing the plans for the development of the Dempsey coal lands, "that he is thinking of retiring and devoting his entire energies to making this enterprise his life's work in the future."

If Dempsey does fight again, Kearns said he will train at Dempsey City, Utah, a town being built at the site of the Dempsey mines. Kearns is secretary and treasurer of the coal company.

The company owns 2,000 acres of coal lands and 6,000 acres of agricultural lands in Castle Valley, including the town site. It also has a three and a half mile railroad and is building three additional miles.

"President" Dempsey announced he was going back to an old job in returning to the coal mining business. In his earlier years he worked as a miner in Colorado and West Virginia.

Center On Church Plans
Rev. J. E. Hawk, superintendent of the Portsmouth District Conference of the M. E. church, visited to Latham this morning to meet with Miss Irma Jenkins, community worker, and to plan for an addition to the church at that place to accommodate the social and religious education work she is carrying on.

Tomorrow Rev. Hawk will meet a committee at Sargent to consider the question of building a church or community house at that place.

Monday night Dr. Hawk met with a building committee and the board of trustees of the McDermott Church and mapped out preliminary plans for a social and Sunday School room in connection with the church.

This Should End The Benton Case

NEW YORK, April 11.—The Rubie Benton case, which has been agitating major league baseball circles for sometime, is closed so far as is involved, John R. Heyler, President of the National League, announced today upon his return from a six weeks' vacation trip which took him to the Pacific Coast.

"Commissioner Landis has decided that the Cincinnati Club is at liberty to sign and play Benton," he said. "As far as I am concerned, that closes the incident."

Ruth, Too Fat Last Year, Now Too Thin

BY HENRY L. FARRELL

NEW YORK, April 11.—Babe Ruth is the greatest exponent of the superlative that ever graced any line of sport. All through the more famous part of his career a "too" has been attached to every descriptive of the swat king.

Last year he was too fat and too careless, and he slipped from the best almost to the worst. This year the experts say Babe is too thin and too anxious. He was once too indignant, and now he is too careful, and in another couple of months the verdict may be—"it's too bad."

Ruth is doing his best to get a clean start this year, and while his newly adopted morals are being commended his ambitions are being put on the pin.

Babe did not start hitting homers until yesterday, when he smacked one off Harry Harper, the former Yank southpaw, who now is hurting for Brooklyn. Perhaps his initial swat of the exhibition series will be discounted because "he ought to know Harper," but along the same line of reasoning, Harper should be familiar with the Ban's "groove"—it has been one.

It was said down south Babe was swinging too long and was "pulling" ahead of the ball. Then he started choking the bat, and the critics wailed he might become a .500 batter of little singles, doubles and triples that way, but that wasn't his stuff.

The Babe says his vision is so defective he cannot read the papers. The Babe is inclined to worry with himself, and since he has developed a keen sense of duty toward what he regards as his public, he might be too anxious this year; and if he doesn't get away good he may suffer from "nonconfidence."

Ironton To Have Basketball Tourney

Friday and Saturday a county basketball tournament will be held in the Ironton high school gym.

Bors' and girls' fives to the number of 24 are expected to participate. Cook, former star of South Webster, will referee the contests which will begin Friday evening. New basketballs are to be given the winners in the boys' and girls' tournaments. The Marion and Proctorville boys are expected to play in the finals with the Coal Grove and South Point girls in the finals. Hope counts for naught in basketball and it is probable that four other teams not considered of championship calibre may come through as contestants in the finals.

ROUSH SUBMITS HIS ULTIMATUM

Eddie Roush, star outfielder, is still outside the fold. His demand for a three year contract calling for a salary of $10,000 annually was not met by the directors of the Cincinnati club at a conference yesterday. The player turned down a one year contract at $15,000.

This Is True
No matter how fair bowling may be, it is an underhand game.

Portable Bleachers
With the basketball season over, portable bleachers for the new high school gym have arrived from Champaign, Ill. They will not be erected in the gym until next season. They will be used for the first time on the platform in the high school auditorium when the elementary school graduation exercises are held in June.

Ruling Effects Three P. H. S. Players

Portsmouth high school's 1923 football eleven will be minus three experienced players who were expected to form part of the backbone of the team as the result of the new ruling of the Ohio High School Athletic association making the age limit 20 years for high school athletes and not over eight semesters.

The new rules were framed last fall but were not adopted until last Friday and Saturday when high school representatives met at Columbus and voted on the rulings. Prof. H. H. Eccles of P. H. S. was the only one in about eighty to vote against the rulings. He was anxious to keep Phillips, Plan and Dougherty in the game and with the 20 year age limit these three athletes will not be able to play in games against other Ohio high schools. They will be eligible to play in games with Kentucky and West Virginia colleges. The eight semesters rule does not prevent any of the local players from getting into the games next year.

The three players barred by the age rule were regulars last season with Plan a star fullback and Phillips and Dougherty linemen.

PORTLAND, MAINE, April 11.—Joe Lynch, bantamweight champion, scored a newspaper verdict over Joe O'Donnell, of Philadelphia in 12 rounds of rugged milling here tonight.

CHILLICOTHE, O., April 11.—Wild Bill Reed, Columbus heavyweight, won the referee's decision over Harry Korbin, of Akron in a 10 round bout here last night. Reed won eight of the rounds while two were even.

To Start Training

DETROIT, Mich., April 11.—Jack McCalliffe, Detroit heavyweight who is to meet Luis Firpo in New York May 12, plans to begin training there April 20, his manager announced today. McCalliffe will engage in light workouts here until his departure for the east. He has fully recovered from a recent attack of grip and declares he is in better condition than when he stopped Hugh Walker.

Scouts To Give Picture Show Thursday

Find Ready Sale
The first nine days of this month witnessed the sale of $1000 worth of U. S. Treasury certificates at the postoffice, according to a statement made yesterday afternoon by Postmaster W. Howard Harsha.

The treasury offers a 4-1/2 per cent interest on the certificates which are an absolutely safe investment and tax free, Mr. Harsha says. The certificates may be purchased in denominations from $25 to $1000 and although intended to run for a period of 25 years, may be redeemed at any time.

Is Very Ill

Howard Atkins is very ill at his home on Twelfth street.

A picture show will be given by Troop 12, of the Portsmouth Council Boy Scouts, on Thursday, April 12, at 3:30 in the afternoon and 7 o'clock at night at Moose Hall, corner of Third and Washington streets. The scouts of this troop have worked hard to make this affair a success in every way. They have sold almost a hundred dollars' worth of tickets and everything points to a large attendance. There will be three pictures shown. The first is to be some scenes of winter sports at Saranac Lake. The second is to be two reels of Charlie Chaplin in "The Pawn Shop," and the feature picture will be a four-reel feature with Douglas Fairbanks in "The Americano."

THE GREATER EVIL

A furious debate raged in the assembly last week, over a bill carrying more and severe penalties against those convicted of violating the prohibition laws. The warmest contention was about the provision that female violators might be sent to the penitentiary.

That does credit to the gallantry of the few noble legislators who had the courage to stand out against the orders of the prohibition bosses, but it would seem it carried them somewhat away from their best reason and logic. The bare mention of sending a woman to the penitentiary for tipping a bit of liquor, is shocking, but the impressive danger in the new legislation is that it places the fate and the fame of every citizen at the tender mercy of any covetous and ignorant cross roads justice, whose capricious places judgment for itself, even before the victim appears before him. For it violates the spirit of the constitution, it denies to the accused the right of trial by jury. Say what you will, that is genuine and unadulterated Bolshevism. Lenin and Trotsky, with their blood-thirst crew of convicts and slaughter hordes in Russia today because they own the courts, because the accused confronts neither mercy, nor justice with ears to hear.

The fundamental basis of law and order in this country, the very existence of the nation itself, turns on the provision, that each citizen is guaranteed a right to be heard by his peers, by those willing to take solemn and honest oath that they have no prejudice against him, no profit to make of his conviction, and have not prejudged his guilt.

Attacking that, loosening its saving grace, weakens the republic, destroying it, destroys the republic.

THE LONG TRAIL

YESTERDAY'S Times told of the arrest, at Phoenixville, Pa., of Corey C. Slaughter, a Pueblo, Colorado, bank defaulter, behind which there lies an interesting story and a moral, of a fact several morals.

The story is Slaughter, committed his crime eight years ago. He fled to far and strange places. Wherever he went there was pursuit right behind, either in his own conscience, or in the form of a detective. He changed his name and he changed his appearance, the latter in so far as he could. Still the spectre haunted him. Finally, he was run down at a sanitarium where dire want had driven him to take a mental position.

The first moral is your sin will find you out, right here on earth, if you happen to steal from a bank, or an express company. The reason is these institutions believe in protecting themselves, not only for today, but for all time; they believe the most convincing deterrent of crime is punishment. So believing they pursue and capture. It makes no difference though the thief flew to the uttermost parts of the world, the cost is not to be counted, time is not to be reckoned, a Nemesis is set on his track and he is brought back and penalized.

The second moral, or rather the lesson, is that the law, any law can be enforced. All that is necessary to that end is intelligence, determination and money.

Democratic state committee literature brings us the cheerful news that the Democrats won in all the municipal elections in Michigan and Connecticut. You can't lick 'em, you know, without capturing the outposts.

Nothing is so bad as it might be. The Ohio assembly has recessed until April 27th.

It is easy to agree with the Cincinnati Enquirer that there is at least one Englishman, showing a sense of humor, when he arises in parliament to say, though it be ever so gravely, that in America there are two classes of people: Those who have still a little and those who have a little still.

Yes, sir, woman is demonstrating her right to equality with man. A Michigan girl has stolen between $12,000 and $15,000 from her employers and she blew it in on three automobiles and joy riding. She looks like a sort of a piker, at that, but it must be remembered the sex is a new hand at that sort of business.

The abundant and redundant Dr. Fess re-nominates and re-elects Harding. We asked a farmer's wife, this week, how many chickens she had and here her reply was: "Well, you know we can't count 'em until they are hatched."

The state board of highways unanimously approve plans for an underground crossing at Sciotoville, which is finer, but it would be finer if the department did not persistently refuse to chip in on it.

New York-Day-By-Day

BY G. A. McINTIRE

NEW YORK, April 11—It is becoming unbearable to Gotham for the man who dips bread in his coffee, reads comic papers and laughs to the whang of a slap-stick. Everything is growing holly-holly. From ordinary conversation to art and literature.

One of the boy book reviewers, just out of swaddling clothes, can see nothing in literature except books few understand. He thinks it is intellectual. He doesn't know he's only teething. Another column philosopher groans daily at the futility of finding a religion. What he needs most is a barber.

Another columnist, and really able, searches literature of the day for misplaced commas. All the plays are scorned unless they come from some sex starling in Czechoslovakia. If an audience understands a play and enjoys it—it is immediately dubbed "Hokum."

Art exhibits are unworthy unless the paintings represent an orphaned ameba squirming in a pool of tar. The portrait of a tree or a horizon inspires the merry hoot. And the painter should be one who has choked his wife in public or has done some other playful thing.

Conversation must be didactic. One must not discuss sore throats, the new parlor rug or grandma's nervousness at 82. Rather must one have a ready tongue to dispute a new theory regarding rheochlorosis or to discuss the new domestic policy at Tsinan.

It seems to me New York needs more low-brows—more of the sanctuaries. A little of the "Broad A" is fine, but dignity and erudition can be carried too far. I like to hear something about the art of Schnitzler, but I also like to hear if Johnny Dooley has invented any new trick falls.

And there is an irresistible appeal about the prose of Milton and Dryden but there is also fascination in a racy mystery story and the queer advertisements in the Police Gazette.

Bra Tanguay carries on. While she appears now in the cheaper priced variety halls, her drawing power has not waned and she is earning $3,000 a week today. It was fifteen years ago that Charles F. Zittel, known as "Zitt," dropped into Proctor's 23rd street Theatre. The ten-

Soft gleam the lights
In the April mist,
Sighting down the hill
They twist

In winding row,
Street-lights pointing
With blurry glow
Deep in the trees

The window-panes
Scatter into
Trailing lanes
Twinkling down the dark hillside

Bright
In the night,
A paler light
Like a trickling rill

Where the tramway passes
At the foot of the hill:
A motor darter,
The misty dark,

An engine flashes
A sooty spark,
A crimson dot
In the deep, black space

Where the valley melts
To the river's rim
And the April lights
Are dim.

Deep in the sky
The twinkling stars
Twine patterns of light
Round cloudy bars

That are light
Soft, lustrous light,
In the April mist,
Soft gleam the lights

In the April mist.
—Margaret Lloyd.

A Wonderful Deck
"I've got a wonderful deck," said the bridegroom enthusiastically.

Whereupon the old poker player, who had never tackled bridge, said:

"I'd like to play my favorite game with a deck like that."

Co-Operation
Business Man—"Doctor, I will double your fee if you will prescribe for my wife a summer at the seaside."

Doctor—"All right; I'll do it at once."

Business Man—"Fine! What had you intended to prescribe for her?"

Doctor—"A summer at the seashore."—London Answers.

Ebe Martin

It's a wonder Leumie Peters amounts to as much as he does, for his mother used to cut his hair at his father wuz a wizard with th' cue. Th' feller that wrote, "Don't turn th' left, don't turn th' right, but keep in th' middle of th' road," must have owned an electric.

A HANDY MAN AROUND THE HOUSE — BY BRIGGS

The Social Ladder
It came to the knowledge of an unemployed engineer that the local dustman's wage was higher than his own. He therefore applied to the labor exchange for a dustman's job.
"But you are an engineer!"
"That doesn't matter," the mechanic replied.
"I have a vacancy for an engineer," said the official. "Take that and work your way up."—The Morning Post.

An Agonizing Thought
Miss Gabb—I thought I never live to tell the tale.
Miss Keen—For you that must have been suffering indeed.
No Such Luck!
I don't know how a man can live on forty thousand bucks a year. No, I don't know, I wish I did. But never will, I greatly fear.

Old Offender
There was recently brought before a police judge in Atlanta a culprit to whom, among others, the magistrate put this question:
"Where were you born?"
"Memphis."
"And were you brought up there?"
"Yes, Yo' Honor, ye' often."

He Saw Him
Mrs. Pott—Did you see the doctor last night, dear?
Pott—(absentmindedly)—Yes, I saw him and went him several better. I mean, I saw him for a moment. I forgot to tell him to call and prescribe for you. I'll telephone for him as soon as I get to the office.
